How to find us.

Parking

There is limited parking on the forecourt of the clinic but ample metred parking in Devonshire Road which is opposite the clinic and less than 15 metres away. Metred parking is also available in Neptune Road, which is approximately a three minute walk (this is a one-way road and is accessed at the mini roundabout just south of Physiolink in the direction of central Harrow). Parking charges are approximately 40p per hour. There is also free parking outside of restricted hours in Devonshire Road (currently 11am -noon but we advise you to check street signs for potential updates/additions to these hours). Depending on time of day, this may be limited and we would advise that you chose metered parking if you need to park as close to the clinic as possible. Morrison's supermarket (situated on the large roundabout south of Physiolink in the direction of central Harrow) is approximately a five minute walk away and offers free parking for customers and coffee shop users.
